Vera Cruz.—Carranza forces have suffered several hundred casualties in heavy fighting in the Pueblo of Haciada Tamiz, state of Tlaxcala, in the last 48 hours, according to reports here tonight. Revolutionary leaders claimed their troops were gradually closing in on the deposed president.
They expected his surrender or capture within the next two days.

The rebels claimed to have more than 14,000 men subject to their orders. The president's force was estimated at about 6,000 troops.

British circles were worried over the fate of John B. Body, British consul at Vera Cruz. Body was reported to have left Mexico City on the train in which the president fled. No word had been received from him.

Ask British Aid.

British subjects in Mexico have appealed to their government to send a warship to Vera Cruz. It was reported, and one of the vessels at Bermuda has been ordered to proceed immediately to Mexican waters.

Another report said Felipe Sanchez, nephew of the deposed president, shot and killed himself yesterday after he had been surrounded by rebels. The youth was one of the best known aviators in the federal army.

He was flying over rebel territory
when shot down, the report said.
Rather than surrender he turned his revolver on himself.

Marines Go Ashore.

American marines were once more on shore in Vera Cruz today. Marines and bluejackets on the American vessels here were given liberty. Two American destroyers and one supply ship were in the harbor. The battleship Oklahoma was expected to arrive shortly.

Advices from Mexico City said revolutionary leaders there had called a meeting to nominate a provisional president and to arrange for the presidential election.

Refuses to Surrender

El Paso, Texas.—President Carranza reportedly penned in by rebel forces near Esperanza station between Mexico City and Vera Cruz, has refused to treat with the revolutionists. General Obregon said today in a telegram received here.

Obregon said guarantees of Carranza's personal safety to Vera Cruz had been made.

General Obregon declared Carranza
would be captured within a few hours.

General Joaquin Amaro has been ordered toward Zacatecas to complete liaison with troops under General
Estrada in keeping railroads open.

Villa Under Knife

Francisco Villa, sent to Torreon to head rebel troops, was to undergo a surgical operation, reports here said.
An old leg wound, suffered four years ago during General Pershing's expedition, was said to be causing Villa trouble.

Matamoros, last remaining Carranza garrison along the international border, was expected to be delivered to the rebels today.

Will Seek Recognition

(By A. L. Bradford)

Washington, D. C.—The revolutionary government of Mexico was today preparing a diplomatic drive to win recognition from this country.

Elaborate preparations will be made for a formal request for recognition by the United States government. It was learned today at headquarters of Dr.
Torre Diaz, "confidential agent of the provisional government of Mexico."

Following is the campaign in the diplomatic fight for United States recognition:

Mold Public Opinion

1.—During the reconstruction period
in Mexico, the provisional government will prepare public opinion in the United States for recognition of the new regime by assurances of protection and hospitality to Americans and their interests in Mexico and strict observance of a friendly policy toward the United States and other foreign powers. One of the first moves in this program was thought to be the assurances by rebel authorities at Piedras Negras to the United States consulate there that the new government desires friendly relations with the United States and that all Americans and other foreigners would be protected.

Play Safe Game

2.—After a period has been given to determine the effect of this policy, ambassadors of the new government will begin to make confidential investigation at the state department here to learn how a request for recognition
would be treated.

Until it is virtually certain that recognition will be accorded, it is understood that a formal request would be held in abeyance.

Carranza Located?

Dr. Torre Diaz today said General
Obregon had reported that Carranza and his convoy was located Tuesday
near Riconada, on the Mexico City-Vera Cruz railroad, and that he was attacked there by General Reyes Marquez. The result of this attack was not made known in Diaz's advice.

Diaz also heard that General Man-

GOOD WILL, NOT LAW, BEST HOPE FOR LABOR PEACE

HOPE FOR INDUSTRIAL PEACE

HOOPER SAYS

OPPOSES INDUSTRIAL COURT

Former Food Dictator Does Not Be-

Given Trial — Opposes Injunctions

By United Press Leased Wire

Washington.—Collective bargaining and "good will" with public opinion exercising the only pressure, offer the best hope for industrial peace, Herbert Hoover told the senate labor committee today.

No revolutionary steps should be attempted, he said.

Hoover declared against injunctions, compulsory arbitration and industrial courts.

"I do not believe that relationship between labor and capital can be settled by any form of legal repression.

Injunction, compulsory arbitration or industrial courts because those lead ultimately to the jail as a means of enforcement," Hoover said.

"It leads to the border of martyrdom and tends to make for compulsory employment and a compulsory
wage."

"The only hope lies in moderate employers and moderate labor leaders, not in revolutionary steps or extremist leaders on either," Hoover said.

"The Kansas industrial court law is practically reproduction of the Australian labor acts. Hoover said.

"I do not want to condemn the Kansas law in spite of the failure of the Australian acts to effect the results anticipated," he continued.

"The Kansas act is an experiment that is worth trying on American soil. It may be possible to develop something worth while. My own opinion is that the act can not succeed in Australia, the number of strikes is as great as in other countries without them."

The Kansas law, Hoover said,
would ultimately determine fair profits as well as establish a minimum wage.

"It in effect substitutes government control of industry for competition. No revolutionary steps should be attempted and the whole problem should be advanced one step at a time."

Hoover said this country need have no fear of strikes being used for political ends and that labor leaders thus far have used them only in the interest of labor.

Wider use of collective bargaining
is the only step that should be taken at present, Hoover believes.

Will Have Industrial Code

"You do think ultimately there will be worked out an industrial code?"
Senator Kenyon asked.

"Ultimately, but it must be worked out by experience," Hoover said.

"Take the question of an eight hour day. It is not a matter of universal application but merely an approximation."

In some industries eight hours is too long a day, he argued.

The question of a living wage is also a variable matter, he said.

Profit-sharing plans work better
with executive and office employees than with skilled labor, he told the committee.

"Devices have been used to detriment to labor and that is the reason for the alarm of organized labor," Hoover said.

One accusation is that bonuses are given to key men to prevent organization.

Want Their Rights

By and large the employees of the country are looking for a position of right instead of a position of consideration, he said.

"What do you mean by that?" asked Kenyon.

"They want their rights instead of benevolence," Hoover replied.

"We need re-stimulation of the creative instinct. With the enchainment of industry there has been a terrible degeneration of the creative instinct."

"The mutual feeling of responsibility between employers and employees that prevailed in earlier days must be restored."

"That relationship would be restored by some plan of shop organization but unfortunately labor has in some cases and wrongfully I think,
been influenced against it."

"Self interest predominates to a very large degree today. During the war we had a period of altruism. The pendulum, however, has swung the other way with great rapidity."

Admits Big Profit

Senator Jones, New Mexico, demonstrated he understood that profits
for the war period are three times
those of pre-war years but that the increase in wages are relatively small.

"There can be no question as to the enormous increase in profits out of promotion to the increase in wage costs," Hoover agreed.

Immense deposits of potash have

of Caltanissetta, Sicily. Preliminary investigations indicate that these are

Republican Leaders May Seek A Compromise With Johnson

(By Harold B. Jacobs)

By United Press Leased Wire

New York.—Chairmanship of the resolutions committee at the republican national convention grows in importance as it becomes increasingly apparent that the league of nations will be one of the big issues of the presidential election.

Senator Hiram Johnson, foremost in the progressive wing, naturally wants the party to go on record as completely opposed to the league pact. All of his prominent rivals have declared in favor of the league with reservations.

Many republican leaders, it is understood, are determined that the international section of the party platform shall contain a pledge endorsing the pact with the League reservations. To insure the least possible opposition to this from the "bitter-enders," led by Johnson, these leaders are said to be ready to recede from their present attitude regarding the permanent chairmanship of the convention and permit Johnson and his followers to pick the man for this position.

In return, it is alleged, they will ask Johnson to offer no opposition to their choice for chairman of the resolutions committee which will draft the platform.

Such an arrangement, according to political observers, would, while possibly improving Johnson's chances of obtaining the nomination, blind him to accept a stand on the league of nations at variance with his past and present attitude in the interests of party harmony. In such circumstances, it is pointed out, if Johnson became the republican candidate, he would be compelled to make his campaign along what these party leaders regard as more popular lines.

Of the democratic aspirants,
Attorney General A. Mitchell Patner is unreservedly committed to the administration's foreign policies. The position of William G.
McAdoo can not be definitely determined but those close to him
believe he would accept the verdict of the democratic platform committee and make his campaign accordingly.

REBELS WANT OIL COMPANIES TO PAY TAXES IN ADVANCE

MANAGERS HESITATE BECAUSE OF UNSETTLED CONDITIONS—
APPOINT MORE MIN-ISTERS

(By Ralph H. Turner)

By United Press Leased Wire

Mexico City.—Representatives of leading American and British oil companies have been in conference
here to consider requests of revolutionary leaders that taxes on oil exports for a certain period be paid
in advance.

The amount required, they said, was about 5,000,000 pesos. They said they were holding the request under consideration because of the uncertainty of the situation.

Appointments from the provisional government included Sanchez Azona,
a senator and former minister to France, as minister of foreign affairs;
Aureliano Mendivil, minister of the treasury and General Jacinto Trevino
as minister of war.

Lawyers Help Out

Generals Obregon and Gonzalez, after a conference, were reported to have agreed that legislative and judicial powers should continue functioning without interference.

A commission of lawyers attended the conference. From these reports it was believed the revolutionists intended to make every effort to clothe their movement with full legal prequisites.

Revolutionists claimed their forces had occupied Tampico. At Tampico they said their forces guaranteed protection of the city and oil property.

Diplomats are Cautious

After a meeting of the diplomatic corps it was learned Azona had sought recognition for the revolutionary government. The diplomats decided to deal with him informally as no representatives of the old government remained in the capital. However, they decided to use the strictest care not to give any sign of formal recognition for the present.

Carranza and his forces were reported in battle with the revolutionary forces south of Apizaco. General Obregon has sent emissaries to protect Carranza's life and offer him safe conduct to Vera Cruz, where it was understood he would be allowed to embark for some foreign country.

The revolutionists claimed victory
in Tepetitlan and Zacatecas, killing sixty federal troops, including two generals.

UNIFORMS

By United Press Leased Wire

Delano, Minn.—One bandit was killed and another captured in a battle with deputies near here early today.

The men are said to have robbed
the store of A. J. Hilstrom at Maple Plain before daylight. They were seen to load a freight train for Delano.

Marshall Joe Marmon here was notified and captured the men on the train. Meantime Hilstrom arrived in his automobile and the four started back to Maple Plain. About two miles out, one of the men struck Marmon over the head with a revolver and knocked him unconscious. Hilstrom grappled with the men. As he was about to be overpowered, Marmon recovered and killed one of the bandits, who was later identified as A.
Anderson, of Clayton, Minn.

The other man gave his name as M.
Dillon, of Morrisown, Ill.

Both wore army uniforms with discharge stripes.

The miners declared the contest

amount of coal a worker should turn

SIMS' CHARGE OF HUGE LOSS OF LIFE CALLED FALSEHOOD

SECRETARY DANIELS AVERS
SIMS' STATEMENT IS RECK-LESS DISREGARD OF FACTS.

By United Press Leased Wire

Washington.—Secretary Daniels
today declared Admiral Sims' charge that the navy department prolonged the war four months and was responsible for the loss of 500,000
lives, "sounded like Baron Munchausen," and is in "reckless disregard" of the facts.

Continuing his statement before the senate naval investigating committee, Daniels said troop transportation up to the summer of 1918 depended on the allocation of tonnage from the allies and was limited by port and transportation facilities in France. He declared further that America exceeded Great Britain in rapidity of troops movement although American troops had to cross 3,000 miles of water.

British Succeeded.

London.—The main thing is the admiralty's work succeeded," Admiral Sir Cyran Arthur George Bridge,
retired, leading British naval expert, declared when asked his opinion on President Wilson's charge that the British navy was over cautious during the war.

Archibald Hurd, naval expert for the Telegraph, protested publication of documents not intended for the world at large.

Hurd praised the American fleet,
especially the destroyers.

"We need not take over-seriously
the statements of a landsman like Mr. Wilson, that the admiralty in 1917 was helpless to the point of panic," the critic believed.

URGE LOANS TO HELP FARMERS MOVE WHEAT

By United Press Leased Wire

Washington.—With wheat director Barnes predicting serious results may follow withdrawal of the government from the wheat market, June 1, through expiration of the wheat price guarantee, leaders of the senate and house interstate commerce and agriculture committee today were framing suggestions to submit at the conference he has called for May 19 to discuss the situation.

One plan that will be suggested is for the United States grain corporation to make loans to the grain dealers and bankers of the middle west out of the $1,000,000,000 wheat guarantee fund, which is virtually untouched. This would enable them to handle the new crop during the delay in realizing on the old crop as the result of the car shortage. Representative Hargrove, Iowa, stated that this is the most pressing need of the central west.

Would Buy All Grain

Representative Thatcher, Kansas,
suggested that the grain corporation
offer to buy all grain now being stored on farms which the government price affects and which can not be moved until cars are obtained.

The conference is expected to submit to the president a resolution as to whether trading in wheat futures
shall be resumed after June 1.

Extension of the guaranteed wheat
price beyond June 1 will not be demanded by representatives in congress from the great wheat belt, a canvass of these members today showed.

PRESIDENT'S HEALTH RAPIDLY IMPROVING

By United Press Leased Wire

Washington.—President Wilson is in the best condition he has been in since his western trip and improving rapidly," Dr. Cary T. Grayson declared today.

"During the last two or three days
his condition has shown especial improvement."

This is the first definite comment made by Grayson on the president's health in many weeks.

The president is working harder than at any time since he returned from the peace conference, according to those close to him.

TWO POLICEMEN SHOT

Entire District Is Terrorized by Gun Battle as Bandit Keeps Police At Bay—Robbery Is Well Planned
Affair

By United Press Leased Wire

Chicago.—Horace T. Walton, 30 years old, of St. Joseph, Mo., a former postal clerk, was shot to death in a revolver duel with fifty police in his apartment here early today after he had held up the mail car of an Illinois Central passenger train near Kankakee, Illinois, and escaped with mail bags estimated to contain $500,- 000.

The money was recovered.

Two policemen were quite seriously wounded in the revolver battle.

Walton boarded the train at Kankakee at midnight. Possessed of a postal inspector, he gained admittance to the mail car. He held five railway mail clerks at a revolver's point for two hours, while the train was running to Chicago.

Suspicion was directed at Walton
when two policemen saw him alight
from a moving train with a heavy bag
in his hand, on the outskirts of the city. Patrolman Roberts was injured probably fatally when he engaged Walton.

Chased to Apartment

The bandit was pursued to his apartment a mile away where he bac-culated himself. Fifty policemen stormed the building. The neighborhood was terrorized by the battle which followed.

After battling half an hour, Chief of Detectives Mooney armed with a Luger revolver, stood before a door through which Walton was firing, and emptied his revolver. There was no response from the room.

Police found Walton lying on a lounge with a gun in his hand when they broke through the door. He had been shot through the heart by a bullet from Mooney's weapon.

In the course of the battle between police and Walton, the latter shouted:
"Are there any coppers shot?"

"Yes, you got two of us," was the reply.

"Fine. I want two more," said Walton.

Walton, according to information received by the police, came here two weeks ago from St. Louis, Mo. He is believed to be from St. Joseph, Mo.
He is believed to be single.

While fleeing from the police after leaving the train, Walton hurled the pouch into an empty lot. It was picked up and taken to a police station.

After entering the mail car at Kankakee, Walton drove the messengers into a corner and bound the hands of the chief messenger. He selected four registered mail pouches which had been placed aboard at Decatur, Ill.

Walton talked and laughed with the messengers while he held them
at bay for more than two hours while speeding towards Chicago. Walton remarked "It is a good thing to be on the inside."

Holdup Well Planned

Police believed the holdup was deliberately planned and that Walton had knowledge of the contents of the mail pouches.

"You'll have to kill me. Anybody who tries to get in here gets croaked," Walton shouted when police trapped him in his apartment.

A score of shots made a sieve of his window. Tents of the building were awakened but didn't dare leave their rooms for fear of being struck by a stray bullet. Many laid on the floor in the battle which waged for more than half an hour.

Walton was hit four times.

James P. Walker, Chicago, who was in charge of the car, described the holdup today.

"There were four other men in the car besides myself," said Walker.

"They were: E. S. Harris, of Carbondale, Ill.; A. W. Bloomquist, of Neoga, Ill.; L. E. Stassen, of Peo-tone, Ill.; the fourth man was a new man by the name of Parks."

"The train had just pulled out of Kankakee when the robber entered the rear end. I challenged his entrance and he replied that he was a postal inspector. Harris started to question him when the robber drew a revolver."

"He then called to Parks and ordered the rest of us to lie face down on the floor, and motioning to some twine, commanded Parks to tie our hands behind us. Parks hesitated but the gun was threatening and he complied. After he had finished, Walton ordered him to get down and he tied Parks."

"Then the robber, mentioning that he had plenty of time, walked slowly to the front end and selected a Decatur pouch. There were four small bags with the larger one."

"This stuff is easy when you have inside information," Walton told us.

"During the run to Chicago, Walton simply sat on a chair and guarded us. He assured us that he would get away and left the train at first stop, Woodlawn."

"The twine was so tightly bound around all but Stassen that the circulation of blood was cut off from our hands. Walton watched Parks closely when he was tying us up. After leaving Woodlawn Stassen managed to kick his feet free and getting up worked his hands loose. He then freed the rest of us."

LAST WILL OF AGED WOMAN ADMITTED TO PROBATE BY JUDGE

Judge John Bottensek of the county court has just rendered his decision in the matter of the estate of Marie Magdalena Siefert, deceased, which is in favor of the will bearing date of August 2, 1918. Both instruments were contested by the heirs at a hearing last week and in his decision which has just been filed, Judge Bottensek says:

JACK FROST GETS IN A HAND LAST NIGHT

THIN COAT OF ICE FORMS DURING NIGHT—EXPECT WARMER WEATHER AFTER MAY 15

Jack Frost was abroad in the city last night, not only making the air real chilly but freezing a thin coat of ice over standing water. The ground was white with frost at an early hour this morning. Little injury was done to plants which have started growing, but the progress usually brought about by warm weather is greatly impeded.

Farmers are busy this week getting ready for corn planting. Most of them expect to do their seeding next week, maintaining an optimistic belief that the cold nights will soon cease. There are plenty of predictions that May 15 is the end of the protracted cool season and that warm weather will predominate from that time on. Overcoats and warm wraps are still popular and probably will be until the weather man actually decides to reform. A "Missouri" feeling relative to the prospect of warm weather has taken possession generally. All predictions being greeted with a "show me" attitude.

The weather report issued this morning also hits a pessimistic note, promising continued cool weather with light frost. There is hope on every hand that the "jinx" will soon be broken.

ONLY SIX PUPILS BUT KEEP SCHOOL GOING

HORTONIA TAXPAYERS REFUSE TO CLOSE UP SCHOOL BECAUSE OF SMALL ATTENDANCE

Taxpayers of school district No. 2, Hortonville, at a special meeting last night, decided to continue to operate their school next year and make the necessary repairs in order to comply with the state law.

The school has an enrollment of only six pupils, four of whom are from one family. The building needs repairs and on account of the high wages teachers are asking some of the taxpayers were in favor of closing the school and sending the pupils to the Hortonville school.

This, however, did not meet with the approval of the majority of property owners who were in favor of keeping the school in operation at any cost. There was a large attendance at the meeting and among those present were A. G. Meating, county superintendent of schools, and P. S. Welch of Seymour, supervisory instructor.

ST. CROIX COUNTY GLAD TO ATTEND CONVENTION

A call was sent out a few days ago to all the county committees on common schools of the state by A. G. Meating, county superintendent of schools, for a conference to be held in Appleton on Tuesday, June 15, for the purpose of discussing rural school matters generally. St. Croix county has already responded to the effect that it will be glad to attend.

TELEPHONE RATES TO BE INCREASED 20 PER CENT SOON

WISCONSIN TELEPHONE COMPANY ENCOUNTERS LITTLE OPPOSITION TO PROPOSED CHANGES.

Preparations for increasing telephone rates in nearly every community in the Appleton district are being made by the Wisconsin Telephone company. It has been announced by J. T. Quinlan, district manager. Conferences with telephone subscribers in the cities and villages to be affected have been held by Mr. Quinlan and thus far he has found no opposition to increased rates.

Books of the company are opened to subscribers to show that in a majority of instances the company has been operating at an actual loss and in those few cases where there has been a profit it has been so small as to be almost inconsequential. It is explained that telephone rates have not been increased since before the war and that with the constantly increasing cost of operation increased rates are necessary.

Salaries paid telephone workers have increased 100 per cent and the cost of materials has jumped 180 per cent, Mr. Quinlan said.

The first increases will probably be made in Little Chute, Hortonville and Greenville. The Little Chute and Greenville exchanges were operated at substantial losses last year, the telephone company's books show. Mr. Quinlan found more than 90 per cent of the Little Chute people he interviewed were not at all opposed to the proposed increases. The phone company plans service betterment in that village, providing two party business lines in addition to the service now offered.

In Hortonville Mr. Quinlan said he found even less sentiment against a change, subscribers agreeing almost unanimously that the proposed increase of 20 per cent in the rates would not impose too great a burden.

Applications for permission to increase the rates will soon be placed before the Wisconsin Railroad commission. It is said that the Seymour-Shiocton Telephone company, which operates the Seymour exchange, has already applied for permission to increase its charges.

The survey in Appleton will probably be started in June or July. Application will not be made to the commission until the company has gone over the field thoroughly and ascertained the sentiment of the subscribers.

It is proposed to increase the rates in every city in Wisconsin. Some have already been boosted but a majority of subscribers are still paying the amounts fixed by the commission as long ago as 1912.

HOT BEARING CAUSES

SMALL WRECK AT DALE
Dale—A hot bearing on a box car on Soo train 22 caused a minor wreck here about 6:30 o'clock last evening. The car left the rails, and before the train could be stopped, the ties were cut up for several rods and the crossing torn out.

Traffic over the crossing was halted until about 9:30 o'clock. The wrecker picked up the car about 11 o'clock.

ANDY AND MIN GUMP DELIGHT BIG CROWD

Andy and Min, mother and Uncle Bim and their associates entertained their friends delightfully at Appleton theatre last night. James Fraser presented a "life-like" reproduction of Sydney Smith's hero in his numerous poses and familiar attitudes, and Min revealed that not only could she love and abuse Andy to perfection, but that she could dance and sing equally well.

The bathing girls' chorus and the Japanese chorus were especially pretty, the latter featuring Beverly Byrd in a dance while playing a violin accompanied to Slick's fascinating song, "Pipe Dreams."

TEACHER SHORTAGE AND AMERICANIZATION
On every hand we hear people talking about Americanization - programs for Americanization, talks on Americanization, movements for Americanization. These are all good. But let us not forget that we have the greatest agency for Americanization already in existence—the public schools. The hope for Americanization is chiefly in the children. The children spend the greater part of their waking hours in the school room. It is in the classroom that American citizens are made.
What does this mean? It means that we must have the kind of teachers in our school rooms who are prepared by training, experience and native endowment to make good American citizens. Dr. E. E. Winship, editor of the Journal of Education, Boston, says: "It is the teacher who can adjust all American children to all other American children. Teachers literally have the fortunes of the United States for twenty years at least in their keeping."
How is Wisconsin meeting its responsibility to provide good teachers for our future citizens? In 1919 Wisconsin spent less per pupil on education than Minnesota, Michigan, Illinois and Iowa, less than any of the northern states but two. Wisconsin is waking up. Nearly forty cities have adopted new schedules for next year showing advances of 20 to 60 per cent.
What about the country schools? What about the University? And the other training schools from which our teacher supply comes, the normal schools? This is no time to drift, to say: "The situation will adjust itself." While we wait, good teachers are leaving the schools, institutions are running down and our chief agency for Americanization, the school, is being undermined.
The United States commissioner of education is authority for the statement that the shortage of school teachers has reached proportions that constitute a national peril. There are 18,279 schools closed because of lack of teachers, and 41,900 schools taught by teachers characterized as "below standard, but taken on temporarily in the emergency."
If we are to count upon our public schools as the asset for Americanization which they ought to be in this critical period of American history, we shall take steps immediately to rescue the schools from the dangers to which they are exposed by the conditions that these facts and figures portray.

OUT OF A JOB
In a letter from Moscow to a friend in Chicago Emma Goldman lets the cat out of the bag. That is, she confesses that she is homesick for America and intimates that she has been rather rudely disillusioned in the matter of Russia's qualifications as a haven for the oppressed and a heaven of "advanced" theories in practical application. The pretty general smile at this news will of course not be shared by resident foreign agitators and our parlor-bolsheviks, who may be expected to do all they can to hush up so damaging a tale. In easy-going America, where Emma Goldman did and said what she pleased, she was in her element. She could prate about American "slavery" and Russian "freedom," and pursue her business of separating fools from their money with a perfectly contented mind.
But in Russia it is quite another story, for there the fools have already been separated from their money, and the quest for bread has become a bitter struggle in a land where deluded drones have side-stepped the job of production for three years. Naturally nobody wants Emma's preachings in a country where the practice thereof has produced tragic results. Her occupation is gone. She tells her Chicago friend that she no longer is "active" and sadly confesses that Russia is not a place "where one may hope to take root easily." No wonder she misses America. Though once very useful to propagandists in the American field, Emma Goldman is now a drug on the home market and no longer of any consequence. It is but human for her to look back fondly to her free fling in America now that she must watch her step and guard her tongue under Lenin and Trotsky's despotism.

YES, HARDER THAN EVER THIS YEAR
For several years our boards of health and newspapers have engaged in an active fight against the fly. "Swat-the-Fly" campaigns have been inaugurated in many cities. The "swat-the-fly" campaign should be started early every year and all precautionary measures taken—first, to prevent disease getting a foothold and second to prevent its spreading.
While it may be impossible to exterminate the flies and mosquitoes, yet this danger and trouble may be greatly lessened by the proper use of screen doors and window screens. There is no excuse for any householder of even moderate means being without screens, which add so much to the comfort and health of the home. All the swatting in the world will not completely exterminate the flies. They must be kept from houses and must be denied food, then there will be a few billions less of them. The Anti-Fly Crusade has these very sensible lines on the first page of a booklet it has distributed:
Its aim—to increase peace, health and happiness.
Its motto—An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.
Its slogan—Keep them out.
Some pretty good rules for dealing with the fly nuisance have been issued by the Merchants' association of New York, and they are given because they are worth following:
Keep the flies away from the sick, especially those ill with contagious diseases. Kill every fly that strays into the sick room. His body is covered with disease germs.
Do not allow decaying matter of any sort to accumulate on or near your premises.
Screen all food whether in the house or exposed for sale.
Keep all receptacles for garbage carefully covered and the cans cleaned or sprinkled with oil or lime.
Keep all stable refuse in a vault or pit, screened or sprinkled with lime, oil or other cheap preparations.
Pour kerosene into the drains.
Burn or bury all table refuse.
Screen all windows and doors.
If you see flies you may be sure that their breeding place is nearby filth. If there is no dirt or filth, there will be no flies.
If there is a nuisance in the neighborhood write at once to the health department.
Another pest is the mosquito, which conveys bacterial to the system by biting whereas the fly carries the germs in his body and clinging to his feet. Screens will bar either from the house, not only adding to the comfort of the occupants but greatly benefiting their health. All the disinfecting of garbage receptacles, the burning of refuse and the cleaning up of the premises will avail but little unless the building is screened.

Today's Poem
EDMUND VANCE COOKE
APPLES OF LOVE
Or "I'm Always Biting Worm-Holes"
There are some apples juicy and some apples dried,
There are apples of Sodom with ashes inside
There are apples of silver and apples of gold
And there used to be apple-jack, so I've been told.
There's an "apple-pie-order," and mine would be pie,
There are apples as dear as the one of your eye:
But mine's the misfortune I'm telling you of—
But tho' I pick wind-falls or pick them above,
I am always biting worm-holes in my apple of love.
Chorus
Some lovers always pick a pippin for theirs;
Some lovers love, along without any cares,
Some lovers pick 'em green and some pick 'em mellow;
Some pick 'em red-checked and some pick 'em yellow.
I am always finding worm-holes in my apple of love!
Eve ate an apple on a fine summer day;
Eve ate an apple and the devil was to pay.
Newton saw an apple fall down from the bough;
That made his fortune, but it wouldn't work now!
Paris gave an apple to the fairest of three;
Venus smiled upon him, but she hasn't on me.
For mine's the misfortune that I'm telling you of—
I am always biting worm-holes in my apple of love.
Chorus
Some lovers always pick a pippin for theirs;
Some lovers love along without any cares,
Some lovers pick 'em green and some pick 'em mellow;
Some pick 'em red-checked and some pick 'em yellow.
But tho' I pick wind-falls or pick them above,
I am always finding worm-holes in my apple of love!

THE APPENDICITIS OPERATION
No getting around the truth. There are many, too many appendicitis operations being done today. I say done, although a regular reporter always says performed when he refers to an operation. An actor or circus acrobat performs; a surgeon operates or does an operation. Perhaps way back in '89 they considered an appendicitis operation a performance.
But as I say, there are far too many appendicitis operations done today. I don't know just why so many are done, but I am sure there are at least ten times too many such operations. Something ought to be done about it. I have a mere suspicion that the Great American Pill is one factor. The popular notion is that, when you don't know what else to do or take it is quite all right to take a "liver" or "stomach" pill, a laxative, a cathartic. It seems that Old Doctor Bunkum has thoroughly pounded into the heads of the great Brotherhood and Sisterhood of Almanac Students the fancy that a physic in some mysterious manner "purifies the blood" or, at any rate, drives some mysterious poison out of the "system." But my suspicion is that these drugs, "purely vegetable," as the charlatans love to say (although opium, morphine, strychnine, prussic acid et cetera are purely vegetable), serve to irritate and congest the intestine and, according to my unproved theory, to invite such troubles as appendicitis.
That is what I mean when I assert that there are probably ten times too many appendicitis operations. I do not mean that the surgeons operate ten times too readily, though candor compels me to admit that too many of our young surgical braves yearn to operate. What I am trying to get into type is the thought that we have much too much appendicitis in this good old land.
When appendicitis "threatens"—and threaten is the word in this treacherous disease—the safest procedure is immediate operation. And take it from one who has been there as the victim, this is the most comfortable way out, too.
QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Ellen versus Dad
Is it bad for one's complexion to use powder to take the shine off the nose and face? My father objects and cites your articles telling of the value of the natural oil of the skin. But I do not agree with him and I think a shiny or greasy looking nose is one of the worst things possible. (Ellen.)
ANSWER—I hope you will always continue to think so, Ellen. If a girl prefers to look as though she had just tripped over the cat head first into the flour barrel, her dad should worry. Perhaps I lack the true appreciation of feminine grace and beauty, but honestly, I like to see a girl's nose shine some—it looks sweet and unsophisticated. Let the bold birds powder as much as they like—it becomes their general type. Sorry I must agree more or less with dad. Constant powdering rather tends to increase to an abnormal degree the very condition you imagine the powder corrects. It seems to be the rule that the better the hygiene the less need the girl has for face powder.
Threatened
My doctor tells me I am threatened with appendicitis. I have a sore place near by right hip. (M. L. O.)
ANSWER—When we doctors are not quite certain about the diagnosis we often make use of that phrase "threatened." We say "threatened with typhoid" or "threatened with tuberculosis" or whatever we suspect may be the disease. It leaves a loophole for escape from our position in the event that our fears prove unfounded. Now your doctor is not sure whether you have or have not appendicitis, so he leaves you dangling until he can be convinced. He is a good doctor, no doubt. Go back and see if he can come to a definite conclusion now.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Friday, May 17, 1895
F. R. Dittmer of Seymour was a business visitor.
John M. Schmidt, president of the Hortonville fair, was calling on friends here.
W. S. Mart of Milwaukee, Robert McMillan of Oshkosh and J. H. Whorton of Appleton took dinner at the Waverly.
G. D. Rowell announced the opening of his new wood and coal yards.
It was reported from the Wisconsin river district that it was not fully decided whether or not the new dam of the Consolidated Water Power company would be constructed during the summer or the following summer.
Not a water wheel was turning on the water-power and the city was without street car service and electric light service. This condition was expected to continue until the water in the lake raised 16 inches above the crest of the Menasha dam.
Ostrom and Maxwell, the eminent evangelist, were about to begin a series of meetings at Lawrence university chapel.
A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wirth the day previous.
E. H. McIntyre, a traveling salesman of Milwaukee, and W. G. Watkins, a railroad man also of Milwaukee, were in Appleton looking over its beauty with a view of locating their families here.
Jacob Kober was laid up with a bruised foot, a marble slab having fallen upon it while he was moving furniture.
Miss Libbie Christie of Neenah, sister-in-law of Hon. S. A. Cook, was critically ill.
James McGillan and Will Green left for a cruise in the Canadian forests looking up pulpwood.
A. C. Homan went to Ripon to be present at the annual inspection of the military company of that city of which he was a member.

Confessions of a Bride
(Copyright, 1920, by The Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n.)
Ann Was Efficient in the Art of Having Things Her Own Way
Ann was her name. I knew from the minute I first saw her that Jim, Jr., had made a mistake. So did his mother.
Ann had snatched our handsome Jim. Mother knew it and I knew it. But Mother welcomed her son's bride and folded her in her arms in the nicest way, and when the girl was released the first thing she did was to adjust her hat, pat her hair, and straighten her collar!
That didn't discourage me. I followed Mother's example and embraced my new sister-in-law cordially. Then Mother hugged Jimmy-boy tight, but her embrace reminded me of a good deal of the tragic hug she always gives her aviator-son when he returns to camp—a sort of farewell hug, as if she never expects to see him again. Handing Jim over to that girl was the same kind of tragedy for Mother.
Ann proved to be decidedly lovely—to look at. Her features in the photo didn't do her justice. Her chief beauty was her wonderful color. And she realized its value. I could see that she flaunted it before my husband, but she didn't worry much about whether Mother and I were impressed by her baby curls and her round violet eyes. She wore the latest "juvenile" frocks. Her modesty was the thing Jim fell for, I guess.
How was he to know it was all assumed? That it is the very latest of stage tricks devised to beguile modern man?
Of course I kissed Jimmy-boy in my accustomed sisterly fashion. Jim's new wife looked utterly astonished! That kind of a kiss between a man and a woman was beyond her comprehension. I grasped her idea of it, then I fairly flew at Jim and gave him another hug. I simply couldn't help it. The little fool! She expected me to stand for her primitive ideas of conduct! I would have to remodel my attitude toward my precious old chum to suit her provincial standards!
"Not a bit of it," thought I. "That girl will have to learn!"
Jim is dense in a way and he didn't catch on to his wife's state of mind. "He will in time! In a short time!" said myself to myself.
Luckily we had to leave the bride and groom as soon as the greetings were done. We had to rush to meet Daddy and Chrys at the station. That gave us a chance to explain about Jim's marriage, and to quiet Daddy before he got home.
Daddy decided to be perfectly lovely to Ann. A pretty girl always passes muster with him.
Chrys gave Ann the once-over and decided that she didn't count. That was the greatest mistake Chrys ever made in psychology.
Ann was the kind of a girl who always intends to count. She was highly efficient in the art of having her own way. Any woman could see that. She went after what she wanted by circuitous routes and she believed that nobody caught on to her selfishness. She was stupid, that way.
"She's just one grade up from the slums!" stormed Chrys as we left Ann's room the third morning after her arrival. Ann had a headache—breakfast in bed and all that, and Chrys and I had gone in to be as nice as possible. And we found that her room was a sight. It was littered with everything she owned. I hated to have any of the maids see it.
"That girl has no background. You can tell from the way she uses her soap sponges!"
"As if that were important, Chrys!" said Mother. "The poor child will pick up a veneer of manners very quickly. But if she isn't orderly, she'll get into trouble with Jim before long. He loves order and neatness and he's a soldier—and he will have it."
"If he wants it in his own home, he'll have to keep a host of servants to supply it," snifed Chrys. "That girl is too lazy to keep the snails out of her curls. We never had anything like her in the family before. Her first disillusionment about us—about all of us Lorimers—is going to be the discovery that we don't consider it elegant to be lazy."

FARMERS NEAR HERE ARE DOING MUCH BUILDING
Considerable building and remodeling is going on at the farms in this locality. Peter Hoffman of Greenville has just completed the erection of a new silo and John Becher is preparing to build one. Roy Menning of Greenville is remodeling his barns and Fred Sager is building a new machine shed. The foundation for a new silo is also being built on Mrs. Fred Schroeder's farm, Grand Chute.

This Store States Things as they are

Half price means HALF GOOD and stands for the result of blunders and mistakes. It is a thinly disguised apology for under-value and a threadbare argument for trade from folks who like to be COAXED and afterward find they've been HOAXED. The lure of "half price" is a deceit, sham and shame.

To come to its best usefulness this Furniture Store states things AS THEY ARE AND GIVES consistent reasons for the whys and wherefores. But it never has and never will in print or otherwise make use of that will-o'-the-wisp "half price."

FIRST WARD KEEPS ITS TOP POSITION

NO CHANGE IN LEADERS IN GRADE SCHOOL LEAGUE YESTERDAY—LIN. COIN QUILTS.

Standings	W.	L.	Pct.
First Ward	4	0	1.000
St. Mary	1	1	.500
Third Ward	1	1	.500
Lincoln	2	2	.500
Fifth Ward	2	2	.500
Columbus-Franklin	1	2	.333
Zion	1	1	.500
Fourth Ward	0	5	.000

First Ward continued its winning streak in the grade school baseball league by defeating Fifth Ward, 21 to 4, yesterday afternoon. The First Warders are now leading St. Mary and Third Ward by a half game.

In the battle for cellar position, Fourth Ward copied the "honors" by losing to Columbus-Franklin 14 to 5. Doerfl, catching for the losers, was the star of the day, handling the receiving job like a veteran.

Zion school failed to show up and St. Mary took a forfeited game, 9 to 0.

Another forfeit was chalked up in yesterday's games when Lincoln quit cold in the third inning in the battle with Third Ward. The Lincoln team's backbone turned to spaghetti after Third had piled up an eighteen run lead in the third inning. Booth had the Lincoln boys eating out of his hand.

Menasha is making every effort to climb out of the cellar in the Fox River Valley baseball league and has secured Cy Boothby to take the mound against Oshkosh at the Sawdust city Sunday.

Cy is well known among local fans. He hurled for Rockford in W-I league days. The Menasha management is also trying to secure Johnny Hughes, former Milwaukee catcher, for Sunday's tilt. Paul Polaski, a pitcher, has been secured to act as assistant coach.

Oshkosh is still undefeated this season and the neighborhood city team is anxious to slip over the first defeat.

The Athletic association of the city, consisting of about 250 members, is arranging the games this year. The object will be to merely make expenses from the gate receipts and draw as large crowds as possible to encourage interest in baseball. It

FACTORY BALL LEAGUE OPENS SEASON TOMORROW

Five openings games of the inter-factory baseball league, staged under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. will be played tomorrow afternoon. Tag day is being held at the various mills today to raise funds for the maintenance of the organization. The schedule for tomorrow follows: Appleton Coated Paper Company vs. Kimberly-Clark at Kimberly. Valley Iron Works vs. Northern Bellier Works at Fourth Ward. Appleton Wire Works vs. Fox River at Jones Park. Interlake vs. Appleton Woolen Mills at Interlake Park. Appleton Machine Company vs. Eagle Manufacturing Company at Lawrence field.

KIMBERLY WANTS TO BE READY FOR PAPERMAKERS

Kimberly—Appleton papermakers, one of the strongest teams in the Fox River valley league, will be the attraction at Kimberly ball park Sunday afternoon.

Manager "Whitt" Behrend has ordered work-out for his team Thursday and Friday nights and Saturday afternoon, as he is taking no chances on having his men caught out of shape. Jim Marino, formerly harrier with the Kansas City team of the American Association, will be on the job for the Hollanders. The contest will be called at three o'clock sharp.

Kimberly lost a heart-breaking battle at New London last Sunday by a 1 to 0 count. Marino held the Edisons to four scattered hits, but the game was kicked away in the ninth inning.

is planned to have one of the nine play the Green Bay city team here Memorial day, but the arrangements are not certain.

KIMBERLY MILL IS LEADING IN CONTEST

The Kimberly mill of the Kimberly-Clark company, is leading the Niagara mill by a slight margin in the day safety contest now being conducted. The contest closes May 19.

To date, three accidents have been reported at each mill, but Kimberly's greater number of employees gives it the better percentage.

BEYER NOT CONFIDENT OF VICTORY TOMORROW

Lawrence college track team left this morning accompanied by Coach "Key" Beyer for Northfield, Minn., where the Blue and White squad engages in a dual meet with Carlton college Saturday afternoon.

The Lawrence squad included C. Hooley, L. Hooley, Waterpool, Colvin, Roeder, Gardener, Mitchell, Lean, Williams and Norwington.

Although hopeful of making a good showing, Coach Beyer is not expecting a victory. Carlton has an exceptionally strong squad, and the Blue and White is handicapped by the absence of several men.

GRAIN FUTURES SHOW MORE STRENGTH TODAY

By United Press Licensed Wire

July corn soared to a new high when it reached $1.78 1/2. May and September corn came close to top marks. July oats led the market in strength, it being in great demand. The market acted bullish on reports of frost in the corn belt and increased prices for cash grains.

May corn opened late at $1.93, down 1 1/2, but later was up 3. July corn opened down 1/2 at $1.75, and was up 2 1/2 later. September corn opened at $1.42, down 1/2, and later was up 2 1/2.

May oats opened at $1.05, up 1/2, and later gained 1. July oats opened down 1/2 at 91 1/2 and later gained 1 1/2; September oats opened at 75 1/2, down 1/2, and later gained 1.

A Lady Told Us the Other Day That The Truest Friend She Had in the World Was Her Washing Machine

She said she had worried herself nearly to death all through the Winter over the subject of the household washing because it was almost impossible to get any one to do it.

Finally she came to Pettibone's and got the "Easy" Vacuum Electric Washing Machine. "and now I can do it myself in the morning and have it all out of the way before noon. That washing machine is the best friend I have in the world."

The "Easy" Vacuum Electric Washer makes washing really Easy. It is Easy to operate — Easy to clean — Easy to understand — Easy to move about — Easy on the current — and it is Easy to pay for.

Every housewife knows that it is hot water that washes quickly and effectively. The "Easy" is the washer with the copper tub with gas burner attached to keep the water hot.

NEWS OF OUTAGAMIE COUNTY AND WISCONSIN

MEDICAL CLINIC AT MADISON WILL BE ASKED BY PHILIPP

WISCONSIN BEHIND OTHER STATES IN MATTER OF PROVIDING HOSPITAL FACILITIES

Madison, Wis.—The establishment of a medical school at the University of Wisconsin and a clinic that will be able to give medical advice and treatment at a fixed cost will be one of the principal proposals of Gov. Philipp in his message to the special session of the legislature which will be convened here late in May or early in June. The situation has been outlined by Dean C. R. Bardeen in a recent statement.

"Wisconsin is far behind neighboring states in state support for medical education," declares Dr. Bardeen. In Michigan, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Indiana and Ohio the state universities have complete medical departments, an essential function of which has been the giving of the best of medical care to those who could not otherwise get such care. Where this care is offered, a few weeks of treatment furnished by the state may make a profitable citizen out of one who might otherwise be a lifelong inmate of a charitable institution. No expenditure of public funds is likely to give a greater return than that spent for scientific study and treatment of diseases. In the states mentioned the clinical departments of the state universities have achieved statewide popularity both with the public at large and with the medical profession. At the last session of the state legislatures in Iowa and Michigan appropriation bills calling for large sums for the extension of hospital facilities at the state universities were passed without dissenting votes. In Michigan, which already has a 150-bed university hospital, in addition to a psychopathic hospital the legislature made provision for the erection of a new 305-bed hospital with a large amount of laboratory space for teaching and research. This new hospital will probably cost in the neighborhood of $2,000,000 when completed. In Iowa a new 400-bed university hospital was erected in 1911 and was soon overcrowded. In 1917 a commodious isolation hospital for contagious diseases was completed. In 1918 a new

cial 140-bed hospital for the care of infants and children was completed. At the last session of the legislature provision was made for a psychopathic hospital for which liberal support for scientific research was included in the act.

"At the University of Wisconsin, in contrast to the universities of the neighboring states, but little has been done for clinical medicine.

Chance Meeting in Red Cross Camp Over There Starts Romance Which Culminates in Marriage

Racine, Wis.—Just a year ago Capt. Taylor J. Brokaw of the Third Hundred and Tenth Infantry was strolling around Bourges, a French village, thinking of home.

COURT DECIDES ELECTION CONTROVERSY AT JUNEAU

Juneau, Wis.—Placing a judicial construction upon three ballots in the election controversy in the town of Clyman, Judge M. L. Lauck filed an opinion in circuit court determining that Michael Manning has been elected chairman over Daniel J. Reen by a vote of 124 to 122. He has ordered that the certificate of election be issued to Mr. Manning.

The town board canvass had declared Mr. Reen elected by a vote of 124 to 122 and issued a certificate of election to him. Mr. Manning demanded a recount, but this did not change the result.

He then appealed to the circuit court, asking that a construction be placed upon three alleged defective ballots.

NINE WELLS ADDED TO ANTIGO WATER SUPPLY

Antigo, Wis.—Nine new wells have been added to the water supply of the Antigo water department. Under a test they showed a capacity of 1,400,000 gallons in twenty-four hours. The wells average 60 feet in depth. Because of the abnormal water consumption, the city proposes to compel the installation of meters. Under the present flat rates the pumpage is as great as that of Appleton, a city nearly twice as large, which has the meter system.

EXPECT 150 CHERRY PICKERS AT CAMP

SPLendid PROGRAM FOR RECREATION IS PREPARED FOR ANNUAL ORCHARD JAUNT.

Applications for entrance to cherry pickers' camp at Sturgeon Bay are being received daily by Jack Payne at the Y. M. C. A. from Appleton boys, and indications are that Camp Goff, which has been set aside for local campers, will be filled to capacity during the camping period. Camp Goff will accommodate 150 boys.

Cherry pickers' camp this year will be the largest in history. Twelve hundred boys, in four camps, will be accommodated under the direction of E. W. Brandenburg of the state Y. M. C. A.

Boys of thirteen years of age, of good habits and character, are eligible to attend the camp. A registration fee of fifty cents, later refunded, is necessary with each application. A splendid recreational program is arranged in addition to the working program. Baseball, track and other outdoor sports are enjoyed, and a capable swimming director has charge of swimming activities.

Appleton boys at cherry pickers' camp last year earned an average of $14.55 after paying expenses. Dudley Verwey was the prize picker, earning $26.62. Walter Krauch made the record pick of 165 quarts of cherries in one day.

The camp dates this year are July 6 to August 6. Jack Payne will have charge of the Appleton delegation at the camp. The daily program of the boys at Sturgeon Bay follows:

- A. M.
- 6:00 Rising call.
- 6:25 Breakfast.
- 6:45 Brief devotional exercises.
- 7:00 to 12:00 Work in orchards.
- P. M.
- 12:00 to 1:30 Lunch and rest hour.
- 1:30 to 5:00 Work in orchards.
- 5:30 Supper.
- 6:00 to 8:00 Recreation.

GEORGE PAPIN, FRENCH LIGHT-WEIGHT CHAMP, TAKES COUNT IN NEW JERSEY RING.

(By Henry L. Farrell)
By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—Another good foreign fighter gone wrong.

George Papin, lightweight champion of France, and stablemate of the noted Carpenter, took his first lesson in an American ring last night and went to the foot of the class.

Low Tandler, the Quaker lightweight, chased him for five rounds, caught him in the sixth and put him out in the ring in Jersey City.

Referee Ertle counted nine over the Frenchman's Discampe, hypnotic manager, tapped on the floor as a signal to rise and the boy got to his feet. The fifth time, he couldn't make it despite the frenzied pounding of the excited manager.

As a fighter Papin is a wonderful sprinter. He set such a dizzy pace in his fight that Tandler couldn't keep up with him.

Papin was trapped in a neutral corner in the fifth and was pushed down three other times for the count of nine—a sensation that had never been his before. The first blow was a terrific right in the stomach and he was out from that time on.

Papin has nothing but gameness. He didn't hit Tandler more than three times in the fight and not one of the blows shook the Philadelphian. In leading Papin made himself wide open and Tandler went right through with lefts and rights at will.

Papin no doubt is a tough boy. He took a terrific lacing and never went down farther than his knees.

Descampe, who is alleged to have hypnotized Joe Beckett, crouched in the corner with just his eyes visible above the boards. He kept a stop watch in his hand and signalled his fighter with the other hand, emitting not a word or sound. Papin's eyes were on the corner most of the time.

WILSON TELLS BAPTISTS BIG ISSUE IS IF AMERICA WILL HELP OPPRESSED PEOPLE

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—The nation now faces nothing less than the question whether it is to help oppressed people in other parts of the world to realize their ideals of justice and ordered peace.

President Wilson said in a message to the Southern Baptist conference here.

This was accepted as a reference to the peace treaty, although it was not specifically mentioned.

Wilson's message follows: "It is a matter of genuine and very deep regret on my part that I can not personally greet the members of the southern Baptist convention now gathered to hold the diamond anniversary of the convention in this city. It would be great pleasure to me if I could meet the members personally and express my deep concern in all the great interests which they represent. It is of special significance and timely that a great Christian convention should be held in Washington because the nation now faces nothing less than the question whether it is to help Christian people in other parts of the world to realize their ideals of justice and ordered peace, and I am sure that the nation will listen with the greatest deference to the utterances of the convention."

CO-EDS PEEVED WHEN HONOR SYSTEM GOES

By United Press Leased Wire
Evanston, Ill.—Indignant students and co-eds at Northwestern University prepared to protest today against the decision of the faculty in abolishing the honor system.

The honor system meant the students at examination time would go into the classrooms and take the examination without supervision. Now professors will stay in the classroom and watch to see that there is no cribbing.

The system was installed five years ago but there has been no let-up in the cheating, professors said. Statistics made public today showed that co-eds surpassed the men in getting high marks for studies and that the students who didn't belong to fraternities have higher averages than those who do belong.

How to Keep Baby Smiling and Well

See that the daily functions are regular and normal

YOU can't expect the little ones to be happy and playful when the head feels dull and the stomach bloated. The normal habit of children is to be happy and when you notice them cross and fretful you will usually find constipation is responsible.

Perhaps they have missed that daily function so necessary to comfort and health. Look at the tongue and see if the breath is bad. Watch for belching. These are the tell-tale symptoms of constipation. Tonight give a little of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which you can buy at any drug store, and it will act in the morning and the troublesome symptoms promptly disappear.

of being without a bottle in the house for the emergency arises almost daily when it is needed.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. Unlike the harsher physics it acts gently and without griping so that while grownups can use it freely it can also be given to a tiny baby with perfect safety. Thousands of American families would not think

In spite of the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, there being over 6 million bottles sold each year, many who need its benefits have not yet used it. TO OUR PATRONS:

Telephone expansion must continue to be ahead of local and national progress. As progress in our commercial, industrial and social life goes on, telephone service must be far enough advanced to receive and care for the increased demands.

During the war this was impossible. Manufacture of equipment was reduced and the reserve facilities and equipment was diverted almost entirely to war purposes.

Now that the war is ended, the Wisconsin Telephone Company plans to spend $6,000,000 in new construction in the next two years and to restore its pre-war reserve of facilities and equipment.

Rates must be charged that will meet present costs, both in equipment and wages. The public must pay, but for its own benefit. Telephone service belongs to the public and it must be maintained, always, at the maximum of efficiency regardless of prevailing costs.

CHAOS PREDICTED WHEN GOVERNMENT LIFTS WHEAT LID

FEDERAL WHEAT DIRECTOR
ASKS REGULATIONS TO CON-TROL WHEAT PRICES
AFTER JUNE 1.

By United Press Special Wire.
Washington. A conference of government officials, congressmen and railroad executives to discuss the possible necessity of continuing guaranteed wheat price after June 1, when it expires, according to present laws, has been called by Julius H. Barnes, director of the United States grain corporation, to meet in New York May 19.

In a telegram to congressmen, Barnes expresses grave concern over the results that may follow the discontinuance of the grain corporation's stabilizing of the wheat price at about $2.26 a bushel.

Barnes in his telegram calling the conference, warns that "agricultural demoralization" may follow unless some other action is taken.

Conditions in Europe and the car shortage has caused the grain corporation to believe that it would be unwise for the government to step out of the wheat market entirely, Barnes indicated.

Barnes' telegram says in part:

"The approaching termination June 1 of the three years' stabilizing influence of the United States grain corporation requires most earnest consideration. America's grain marketing machinery and its large credit needs formerly depended upon the security afforded by hedging transactions in the great grain markets. These hedging markets will not be reinstated because of present hazards. The disorganization of Europe forces the purchase of their bread supplies by government officials instead of through private merchants whose thousand differing opinions introduced a measure of cautioning against violent price fluctuations.

NETTE COLVIN WINS IN ESSAY CONTEST

LINCOLN SCHOOL PUPILS WIN
FIRST PRIZES FOR THE CITY BEAUTIFUL
ESSAYS

Nette Colvin, eighth grade of Lincoln school, was awarded first prize in the city beautiful essay contest carried on under auspices of the city beautiful department of Appleton. Woman's Club. Second prize was won by Harold B. Zuehlke, also of eighth grade, Lincoln school.

Other prize winners were: Ethel Radtke, 7th grade, First ward school; Helen Warner, 6th grade, Fourth ward school; Robert Joyce, 5th grade, St. Mary school; Margaret Rammner, 5th grade, St. Joseph school.

Prize winning essays follow:

The City Beautiful.
(Nette Colvin.)
The city beautiful! Are these mere empty words or do they hold a deeper meaning for you? Is it possible to have a beautiful city when the responsibility of keeping public property clear of rubbish is left to a few people?

If you happen to hear a stranger remarking unfavorably upon the appearance of your streets, you feel insulted. Yet you drop your paper in the gutter, scatter your picnic debris to the four winds, and leave a trail of peanut shucks behind you.

In order to make our city a real city beautiful we must use for our slogan those three simple words: "Pick it up."

How Can We Make Our City More Beautiful.
(Harold B. Zuehlke.)

We can greatly improve the looks of our city by prohibiting the dumping of rubbish and tin cans in places where they are so conspicuous. Tight on our avenue we can see one of the most unsightly dumps in our city. This can be stopped by having large boxes put up in different parts of the city and into these, householders might empty their cans every week. The city could then remove them.

The ravine which is now such an eye sore could be covered with good soil and vines and shrubs could be planted over its sides.

The City Beautiful.
(Ethel Radtke.)

Some of the forests of the countries of Europe look like beautiful parks. Why is this true? Because the people pick up the leaves and even the smallest twigs. Why can't we make Appleton beautiful? All paper, tin cans, rags, and other rubbish should be picked up. Every girl, boy, man, and woman ought to be glad to help make a clean city out of Appleton.

After all the paper is picked up, care must be taken to keep it so. Tags have been awarded to pupils agreeing to do this for one year. Also these pupils agree not to harm trees, flowers, and plants, and they are urged to pick up sticks, orange peelings and other things that mar the appearance of streets and yards. So: Pick up the paper.

Pick up the tags.
If you do this You'll deserve your tags.

The City Beautiful
(Robert Joyce)

We are all interested in making Appleton a beautiful, picturesque city. This can be accomplished by picking up all paper and rubbish in our yards, in public places and in streets; by keeping our lawns in trim, and by planting trees, flowers and shrubbery. We can even make our gardens beauty spots. What is more pleasing to the eye than a garden plot neatly laid out, soil well worked, and free from weeds? With our aim constantly in view and these points kept in mind, we can have the most beautiful city in the state of Wisconsin. Is this plan not worth considering?

The City Beautiful
(Margaret Rammner)

Arriving at the depot I took my suit case and started down the street. Looking about me I noticed the difference between the place I had left and that which lay before me. Clean streets stretched out in every direction. Beautiful lawns bordered the streets on either side, garbage cans were covered, everything was as neat as it could be.

I was wondering who had made this possible, when around the corner came a little lad, who wore a card, on which were the words "Pick it up." I understood. For if everyone would patronize these cards, the dirtiest city could be made clean.

The City Beautiful
(Robert Joyce)

It is said "Fine clothes do not make the man," but do not fine buildings make the town? No matter how well kept its parks, lawns and gardens, a town cannot be called beautiful if the houses are ramshackle, needing paint and repairs.

Nothing will so impress strangers as well built, well kept buildings and clean streets. Then, too, the lawns must be in good condition to give the homes a setting.

Unkept property will reflect on the prosperity of the town. Our ravines would be attractive if garbage were deposited outside the city limits, and sanitary conditions would gain thereby.

The City Beautiful

If It Only Were!
The late Ella Wheeler Wilcox, though the most popular poet of modern times, steadfastly refused to enter New York society. The most exclusive Fifth avenue portals were open to her, but Mrs. Wilcox passed them indifferently by.

A New York Magazine editor once sought her out with an invitation to a Fifth avenue dinner party.

"I'm sorry," she said, "but I can't go."

"Oh," said the editor, "you must accept this invitation!"

"Why must I?" said the poet.

"Your host," the editor answered, "is rich—a multimillionaire. You must accept."

"Well, I would," said Mrs. Wilcox, "with a smile, if it were catching!"

Uncle Sam Tractors The Reason Why

The splendid popularity of Uncle Sam 20-30 farm tractors is directly traceable to the durability of the machine and its ability to stand up under all kinds of heavy duty and rough usage. Take the time to check up the following points of construction:

- 1st—The motor is constructed to work efficiently on kerosene. We test it on kerosene. It runs better on kerosene than it does on gas. Of course it is equipped with a kerosene carburetor. The Bennett which we consider to be the best—but it is a kerosene motor, not just a gasoline motor with a kerosene attachment.
- 2nd—The transmission will outlast the tractor itself. We sent our general specifications to Nuttall—the oldest manufacturers of transmissions and told them to build us a transmission that would be more than ample for all conditions regardless of price. They did it.
- 3rd—Timken roller bearings are used wherever rollers are possible. You'll agree there's nothing better.
- 4th—The whole tractor—motor, transmission, clutch, in fact all vital parts are enclosed in one solid dust proof unit assuring long service and minimum wear from dust.
- 5th—The belt pulley is set conveniently on the side—operates on a separate clutch—is governed in speed by the best governor we can buy.
- 6th—The cooling system is as complete as you'll find on the highest priced passenger cars and so efficient that there's no bug-bear of overheating on the Uncle Sam.

Come and see us; there is nothing secret about the manufacture of Uncle Sam Tractors.
WE WILL BE GLAD TO SEND YOU A CATALOGUE.

RALLY IN EIGHTH GIVES BREWERS ANOTHER WIN

MILWAUKEE—Little Nemo Gearin, whose first name is Dennis, busted into the gallery of Chambers street celebrities on Thursday afternoon with a base hit, which was worth its weight in radium. Incidentally the midget's blow, which broke up a pitching duel between Lou North and Clint Rogers, upset some fine lay plans of Jack Hendricks and gave the fans a chance to give Jack the well known razz-berry. The final count was 5 to 0.

Gearin's happy smash came in the eighth inning. Until this point Rogers and North had waged a bitter battle, neither side registering a run. Then the blood started and Mr. Rogers became so excited that his shirt broke loose from its moorings and hung out of his pants. Most started the music in the big inning with a hit to center and was hit by Rogers. Butler fanned a single to left but Rogers came up clean with the ball and Mostil was held at third. This brought Gainer up, but the enemy refused to take a chance with Del and he was passed purposely for Gearin. This evidently peeved the little Irishman, for he crowned the first ball pitched for a single, scoring Mostil and Rogers. Rogers then slammed a hit to center and Gainer scored. Gearin tried to reach third on the pike but was nailed. Hauser went to second while Gearin was being run down and scored when Gaston stung a hit to center. Another futile peg to the plate permitted Mons Alexander to reach second. He scored when Lutzke shot a hit to left. North finally ended the slaughter with a fly to Rebg.

Aside from Gearin's timely wallop the big hit of the show was North's pitching. Lou allowed but three hits, and of the paven broker's cluster but one was a real wallop. The other two were in-field scratches.

MANAGERS WHO STOOD PAT ON LAST YEAR'S ORGANIZATIONS ARE GETTING ANNOYED

(By Henry L. Farrell)
By United Press Leased Wire

New York—Some of the National League managers who "stood pat" on their lineups during the winter season, are now becoming anxious.

The off-season, the quietest of years, passed without the scent of a trade in the National League.

Satisfaction in what they had to make the big 1929 gamble with, was expressed by every manager in the league except Jannis McGraw, when the wise heads of the game were pow-powing at the Waldorf last winter. Three managers may regret now they didn't shuffle their pedal extremities around a little bit more after some reinforcements.

After just about a month's usage, the machines of the Giants, the Robins and the Cubs are making noises varying from a grating rasp to a threatening creak.

McGraw has to have an infielder or two and he should have another pitcher.

The Giants have the best catching staff in the league. The Pirates, Phils or the Cards could use any one of the quartet and McGraw is known to be working on them for an infielder.

Uncle Wilbert Robinson wants an outfielder.

Brooklyn has a superfluity of pitchers and Fred Mitchell would like to have one of them to help out Alex the great and Big Jim Vaughn. The Cubs have offered either Merkle or Charley Herzog.

FRED A. DENNETT IS DEAD IN SHEBOYGAN

PROMINENT MANUFACTURER, LAWYER AND MASON DIED SUDDENLY—WAS WELL KNOWN

Sheboygan—Fred A. Dennett, eminent business man, former mayor of this city, state senator, and philanthropist, is dead. Death overtook him as he was waiting for an interurban car at the crossing near the New York Recording Laboratories plant in Graton, to take him to his home here. He was taken suddenly ill and became unconscious before the arrival of a physician, who was summoned, and expired a few minutes later of acute dilation of the heart.

Funeral services will be held on Friday.

Mr. Dennett was born in Greenville, Me., May 19, 1848, and came to Wisconsin at the age of 2 years with his parents. He received his education in the schools of Sheboygan Falls, and in the Bryant, Stratton and Spencer commercial college, at Milwaukee.

Founded Harvester Factory

At the beginning of his business career Mr. Dennett showed great executive ability and organizing genius. At an early age he engaged in the manufacture of binders and mowers in Milwaukee, forming the nucleus of what is now the Milwaukee Harvester company.

In 1886 he returned to Sheboygan and became affiliated with George Mattoon and Fred Merrill, of Milwaukee, in organizing and developing the Mattoon Manufacturing company, now the Northern Furniture company. In 1888 he founded the Wisconsin Chair company at Port Washington. In 1891 he organized the Sheboygan Knitting company in this city, the plant continuing in operation until 1904, when the business was discontinued and sections of the

TOLEDO MAN WILL PRESENT A PLAN IN VOICE IN HIS CITY—MEET AGAIN TOMORROW

Extension of religious education in Appleton is to be taken up from all angles at the conference planned for 7:30 o'clock this evening at the council chamber of the city hall. Dr. A. W. Trettien of Toledo, O., is to address a joint meeting of Appleton Sunday school workers and to conduct a discussion on the application of his plans to this city.

Methods used elsewhere, how they link up with the present Sunday school work and how the plan used in Toledo operates are to be explained by Dr. Trettien. He is not only an expert on the subject of religious education, but is a forceful platform speaker. He is former principal of the Fourth ward school here and it is expected that many will greet him at the meeting this evening.

A similar conference will be held tomorrow evening to which the teachers of the public schools will be invited. The institute is conducted under the auspices of Appleton Ministerial association.

Don't Let Catarrh Drag You into Consumption

Avoid Its Dangerous Stage. There is a more serious stage of Catarrh than the annoyance caused by the stopped-up air passages, and the hawking and spitting and other distasteful features. The real danger comes from the tendency of the disease to continue its course downward until the lungs become affected, and then dreaded consumption is on your path. Your own experience has taught you that the disease cannot be cured by sprays, inhalers, jellies and other local applications. S. S. Putting brains in the tool box

We recently asked a Louisiana farmer how we could improve the service to Hart-Parr 30 tractor owners.

He said: "Put some brains in the tool box."

The Hart-Parr idea of service is to educate and this farmer expressed it well. Nineteen years of tractor building experience has taught us that it pays to help the dealer and the tractor owner to avoid trouble. It is an adaptation of that old and true maxim: "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

Hart-Parr 30 today is winning the big official tests, but that is not the only reason that Hart-Parr 30 owners are enthusiastic. They are satisfied because they have been taught to make the Hart-Parr 30 win on the farm. They have been taught to use it to the best advantage.

He said: "Put some brains in the tool box."

The Hart-Parr idea of service is to educate and this farmer expressed it well. Nineteen years of tractor building experience has taught us that it pays to help the dealer and the tractor owner to avoid trouble. It is an adaptation of that old and true maxim: "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

Hart-Parr 30 today is winning the big official tests, but that is not the only reason that Hart-Parr 30 owners are enthusiastic. They are satisfied because they have been taught to make the Hart-Parr 30 win on the farm. They have been taught to use it to the best advantage.

Putting brains in the tool box

We recently asked a Louisiana farmer how we could improve the service to Hart-Parr 30 tractor owners.

He said: "Put some brains in the tool box."

BIG MANITOWOC SHIP YARDS TO BE SOLD

BIG MANUFACTURING PLANT TO BE SOLD AT AUCTION JUNE 10—COSTS ARE TOO GREAT.

Manitowoc, Wis.—The plant of the Manitowoc Shipbuilding company, including the engineering and boiler works, will be offered for sale at public auction on June 10, it was announced on Thursday after a meeting of stockholders.

Heavy tax burdens on the company, imposed by federal laws on improvements and extensions made during the war to aid the government in its shipbuilding program, additions which are now idle and useless, caused this action on the stockholders, according to L. C. Geer, treasurer.

The government has failed to recognize the conditions under which these improvements were made and the burden which they now are on the company, it is asserted.

Announcement of the sale does not mean that the shipbuilding industry in Manitowoc is to be abandoned. The company is retaining certain equipment, including its mammoth floating dry dock, which is not offered for sale. Neither is raw material to be included in the auction.

This means, according to officials of the company, that if the yards are disposed of, the company may move its dry docks and other equipment farther up the river and establish new yards.

As the shipyard now stand, they are too large, and involve too heavy a burden for the company to carry on, now that the demand for boats is greatly reduced. Under present conditions the company could not utilize much of the equipment for building lake vessels, it is stated.

The shipyards have a capacity of about twenty mean going vessels a year.

Chinese Widows Suicide.

Chinese widows rarely remarry. As a rule customs of society do not go further. But in some parts of Fuhien the self-destruction of widows in their devotion to their husbands has assumed almost barbarous forms. For example, when a man passes away his wife will generally declare her intention to kill herself to demonstrate her faithfulness toward him. Then the elders of the family will cause a high stage to be erected and invite their relatives.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS PLAN RALLY IN JUNE

AUCTION SALE OF 15 HOLSTEIN SHIRDS WILL FEATURE THE MEETING IN BLACK CREEK

Preparations for the biggest cattle breeders rally ever held in the county were made at a meeting of the Fox River Valley Holstein Breeders' association at the Northwestern house Wednesday evening. The rally will be held at the Sassenman farm in Black Creek June 16. The Sassenman farm was selected because of its central location which will make it possible for breeders to attend from all parts of the county.

The biggest feature of the rally will be an auction sale of 15 pure bred shires. A committee consisting of Lloyd Tubbs, William Meinung and Walter Wiekert was appointed by R. J. Schaefer, president of the association, to take care of the sale. Paul C. Nyhus, recently appointed farm service man for the First National bank will work with this committee in arranging the sale and will also assist in making preparations for the rally.

The committee in charge of general arrangements for the big meeting consists of William Winkler, Edwin Sassenman, John Taeger, George Tubbs and Edward Mueller.

Concerning Mummies.

Mummifying is a process of dehydration, signifying merely the withdrawal of all moisture from the body. In the Peabody museum at Cambridge, Mass., is a baby that may be thousands of years old. It was found in a cliff-dweller's cave, fastened to a board cradle, and so perfectly preserved that even the eyes are intact. Interesting experiments have recently been made in the "restoration" of mummies obtained from caves in the Southwest. So shrunken are they by desiccation that the body of a 50-pound man is reduced to about fourteen pounds, the parchment-like skin holding the bones like a bag. When such a mummy is placed in a closed box, and steam is slowly introduced, it gradually absorbs the moisture and resumes somewhat of the contours of the person in life, giving a notion of what he looked like. But thereafter it must be kept in alcohol, else decay would set in.

In the sick room don't have the patient lie with his face to the window; he is sure to suffer from the light if you do.

ANOTHER EXAMINATION FOR RURAL SCHOOL PUPILS

Because a number of pupils failed to appear at the diploma examinations two weeks ago, A. G. Meating has decided to hold another examination on Monday, May 24, at Appleton, Kaukauna, Seymour, Black Creek and Bear Creek. Pupils who failed in the first examination may rewrite at the coming examination if old enough to receive diplomas.

He Was No Molluscoid.

A neighbor's son was entertaining about twenty of his little boy and girl friends at his birthday party. The children were supposed to return to their respective homes at eight o'clock in the evening, however, they were having such a good time when the going home hour arrived, its passing still found them hard at it. The mother of the little host suggested to him the advisability of intimating to his little friends the lateness of the hour. This is how he did it:

"Say, it's nine o'clock, I'm getting sleepy, and your kids have got to go home."

"What's that? Go home this early?" said one of his indignant little guests. "I thought this was to be an all-night affair!"

"So you've been in the army, eh?" asked the old gentleman kindly. "And tell me, did you do much shooting while you were over there?"

"I won $80 the first day I landed in France," answered the gambler, proudly.—Home Sector.

TRAVELING MAN HAS GAINED 28 POUNDS

GETS RID OF INDIGESTION AND NOW FEELS LIKE A NEW MAN

Still another popular "Knight of the Grip" comes forward with his unequalled endorsement of Tanlac. This time it is G. J. Jewel of 426 Oakland avenue, Waterloo, Iowa, who represents a well known Iowa firm in Indiana and Illinois and his statement regarding the benefits he has derived from the use of Tanlac is both interesting and remarkable.

"I came in here looking for the buyer in my line," said Mr. Jewel, addressing the Tanlac representative at the Hook Drug Store in Indianapolis, the other day, "and seeing Tanlac there on the counter I just can't help stopping long enough to say a few words of praise for the good it has done me."

"Why, do you know, I have gained twenty-six pounds in weight by taking that medicine and not only that, I have gotten rid of one of the worst cases of indigestion a man ever had. At the time I began taking Tanlac I had not been able to eat anything in three years without suffering terribly from it. My appetite went back on me and if I ate any breakfast I felt so distressed all the forenoon that I couldn't call on a customer. On a number of occasions I had such awful cramps in my stomach that I had to remain in my room most of the day. I would lie up as tight as a drum and the gas would press on my heart, almost cutting off my breath. Often while waiting on my customers I have been taken with dizzy spells and spots before my eyes and felt so miserable that I had to excuse myself and hurry to the hotel. My stomach was in such a bad fix that I lost weight as well as strength and endurance right along. Finally I got in such bad shape that I frequently had to lay off a week or two at a time. It seemed that all my energy had left me and I couldn't generate enough enthusiasm and interest to properly look after my business. My kidneys had also bothered me for a number of years and my back hurt me so I couldn't walk very far without sitting out."

"I could never get a good night's sleep and was in such a bad fix at the time I began taking Tanlac that I thought my road days were all over. But, sir, the way my first six bottles of Tanlac helped me is nothing less than astonishing. My stomach felt like a new one and my appetite was better than in years. My back stopped hurting me and I felt so much better in every way that I made up my mind that six more bottles would be cheaper than a doctor's bill. So I bought them but it took only four to fix me up as good as new. I am now enjoying the best of health and I mean to say that, I eat and digest anything, sleep like a child every night, and never have an ache or a pain of any kind. I can't recommend Tanlac too strongly and I am more than glad to give the public the benefit of my experience with the medicine that made a well man of me."

Tanlac is sold in Appleton by John E. Voigt; F. O. Town, Shiocton; Dr. J. M. Sattler, Bear Creek. adv.

WILL ASK CONGRESS TO PASS LAW PUTTING AMENDMENT IN EFFECT WHEN RATIFIED.

(By George B. Waters.) (Special to Post-Crescent.)

Washington.—The National Woman's Party has mapped out its program for the immediate future. In the event Delaware completes ratification of women's suffrage.

The next thing on the program will be to get congress to put through a referendum in Ohio, New Mexico and Oklahoma, where the question is up.

The third and important step will be to get congress to put through a law putting the amendment into effect. No state could disfranchise women, even without the law, as it would be unconstitutional. But the women want congress to set forth in detail all the rights of women to the ballot, with a penalty for anyone who tries to interfere with their voting. With only the amendment in effect their right to vote, in case some state questioned it, would have to be established by civil litigation.

The women expect some opposition to this law. But they will keep on the trail of congress till it passes one.
